MEMORANDUM FOR: IADs

SUBJECT : Reorientation in Supervisory
 Responsibilities

1. At the request of the DCI, a half-day program has been designed by the Office of Training to make clear the Agency's interest in better supervision of personnel, to point out some current weaknesses, and to alert all concerned to the dangers to the Agency and its mission which have resulted and can result from failures in good supervision. Specifically, emphasis is to be placed on the critical necessity for supervisors to observe impeccable standards of objectivity, integrity, and impartiality in dealing with subordinates.
2. The Reorientation in Supervisory Responsibilities will be attended by all staff employees who:
 - a. Are in grade GS-14 or above, or
 - b. Are in grade GS-13 or below and who customarily prepare fitness reports on two or more subordinate employees.
3. The Course is scheduled for the mornings of 13 and 20 August in the Auditorium. The presentations will be made by senior CIA Officials, including the Director of Central Intelligence and the Deputy Director (Intelligence). This running is intended specifically for managerial and supervisory personnel of the DD/I components in the Washington area. The program will run from 0830 to 1230. Attendance will be checked and a permanent record will be compiled.
